SUGGESTED GEAR LIST

The goal here is to fit your essential gear into your day ski pack. Our porters haul in the bulk food supplies and are available for hauling $1.50 per lb . You should be able to ski in with your day and half pack 2500-3800, plus some extra beer weight. No need for monster pack, unless of course you're a gear head.

Pack: Day and a Half size, 2000-3800cc (35-50liter), basically holds essential day ski gear, no need for oversize pack

Base Layer: Capilene Tops and Bottom, Mid-Weight (spring) or Expedition Weight (early winter) lightweight for the sweaty Vikings

Mid Layer: Fleeeces, Full Zip Top and or Vest

Soft Shells: (alternative to "old school "ski outfit) Scholler Pants and Scholler Jacket (highly breathable, windproof, and still sheds snow, just about every manufacture has their own version these days)

Outer Shell : Gore Tex Top with Hood, Full Sidezip Shell Bottoms (optional if you have Scholler pants and or jacket)

Insulated Parka: Down Sweater or Polarguard Jacket (great for rest breaks to retain warmth or in-camp nature calls)

Hats: Brimmed Sun Hat or Visor (keeps snowflakes out of eyes), Headband, Light Nordic Stocking Cap (beanie), Thick Earflapped Hat (style statement)

Eyeware : Goggles and or Shields, Yellow or Rose Lenses (superior for flat light conditions), Sunglasses, Chamoix or Lense Cloth Wipe

Hands: Lightweight Polypro gloves, Insulated Shell Overmits or Gloves with removable Liners, or the tried and true insulated leather workgloves w/ custom cuff

Socks: Thin Wicking Socks (change out for every day), Vapor Barrier Liners (keeps feet wamer and prevents boots from wetting out and some say BLISTER preventer), Thick Over Sock???

Personal Gear: Camp Booties (over the ankle, lightweight, stuffable) Tooth Maintenance, Sun-Block, Lipbalm, Headlamp, Light outfit/pajamas with flair (for apres skiing and sleepy time(ear-plugs?) 2 liter Waterbottle, Small Stuff Sack for lunch goodies, Optional Sauna Supplies

Slope Tools: Telemark, Alpine Touring (Randonee), Snowboard & ApproachSkis or SplitBoard, Climbing Skins(glop stopper), Scraper (more for snow and ice around bindings than kickwax these days), Heel Lifters, Binding Repair Kit , Poles

Safety Gear: Avalanche Transciever, Shovel, Probe, Safety Whistle,

Foot Repair: (i.e.secondskin(moist burnpads), moleskin, molefoam, benzone tincture(for adhesion), Miracle for evil blisters.

Ask about our Black Diamond sales, rentals, demos. We also rent snowboard approach skis
